

Chinese New Year

1. The first year in the Chinese calendar is the Year of the _____.
(A) Rat (B) Rabbit (C) Dragon
2. On the Lunar New Year, children show special respect for their _____.
(A) brothers and sisters (B) friends and classmates (C) parents and grandparents
3. In Korea, families often play _____ together.
(A) music (B) board games (C) football
4. In China, dancers often dress up as _____.
(A) a lion or a dragon (B) a tiger or a snake (C) a horse or a rabbit

Taipei Named One of the Best Cities for 2025

5. What score did Taipei receive for how much people love it?
(A) 51 (B) 56 (C) 76 (D) 22
6. Which park was famous in Taipei in this reading?
(A) Central Park. (B) Yangmingshan National Park.
(C) Yellowstone National Park. (D) Golden Gate Park.
7. Which is one of the reasons that Taipei is praised in the report?
(A) It has the best shopping malls.
(B) It has one of the best healthcare systems in the world.
(C) It has the most museums.
(D) It has the largest population.
8. What significant social achievement is noted about Taipei and Taiwan?
(A) It has the most parks. (B) It was the first place in Asia to allow same-sex marriage.
(C) It has the fastest trains. (D) It has the best schools.

Din Tai Fung: A Special Restaurant in New York

9. What is Din Tai Fung famous for?
(A) Wontons (B) Xiao Long Bao (C) Fried Rice (D) Spring Rolls
10. Why did Yang Bing-Yi and his wife start making dumplings?
(A) A friend told them after their store didn't do well. (B) They wanted to open a bakery.
(C) They were bored with cooking oil. (D) They wanted to sell noodles.
11. How do people feel in the restaurant of Din Tai Fung?
(A) Very fancy and quiet. (B) Small and crowded.
(C) Big and nice, but not too fancy. (D) Dark and noisy.
12. What message does Din Tai Fung want to send to its customers?
(A) Come, sit, eat—and leave. (B) Stay and chat for a long time.
(C) Order lots of food. (D) Only eat dessert.

Be A Postcrosser! Postcards Connecting the World

13. What is Postcrossing?
- (A) A way to send emails to friends. (B) A game played with friends.
(C) A website that connects people through postcards. (D) A type of social media.
14. How does Postcrossing work?
- (A) You send a postcard and get a reply instantly.
(B) You write letters instead of postcards.
(C) You only send postcards to your friends.
(D) You register online and send postcards to random people.
15. What did the writer feel about writing postcards at first?
- (A) It was very easy. (B) It was a fun game.
(C) The writer could practice English well. (D) The writer could send many cards.
16. What kind of stories can you receive through Postcrossing?
- (A) Stories about famous people. (B) Stories only from your friends.
(C) Stories from strangers around the world. (D) Stories from movies.

Taiwan's Best Travel

17. What is the main idea of this reading?
- (A) Taiwan's delicious food is the most famous thing for all foreign tourists.
(B) Indigenous culture can be Taiwan's best and most meaningful tourist attraction.
(C) Cheryl Robbins is a famous tour guide who helps people save money on trips.
(D) Western tourists only enjoy buying expensive handmade gifts in Taiwan.
18. According to the reading, how much does a tourist need to pay for Cheryl's tour each day?
- (A) NT$25,000 (B) NT$8,000 to NT$10,000
(C) About NT$3,500 (D) It is totally free for Western tourists.
19. What is in the price of Cheryl's tours?
- (A) Only a good guide and rooms.
(B) Transport, meals, plane tickets, and shopping money.
(C) A guide, transport, rooms, and tasty meals.
(D) Traditional gifts handmade by the Atayal people.
20. What did the seven tourists do when they visited the Atayal community in Miaoli?
- (A) They learned how to cook traditional food.
(B) They had a tribal lunch and joined a weaving workshop.
(C) They stayed in the village for seven days.
(D) They haggled with local people for cheaper prices.